

November 2013 Newsletter

Dear {FIRST_NAME|For Our Grandchildren Supporter},

In October nearly 150 people attended our Climate Change forum in Guelph. Former Federal Environment Minister Stéphane Dion and author Andrew Nikiforuk presented their perspectives on Climate Change.

Local MPP candidates answered questions on their party's position on several local related questions.

Check out the video on the Guelph Mercury website for a sample of the event, and read more about the it on the 4RG web site including links to related articles by both M. Dion and Mr Nikiforuk.

We continue to comment on climate change with articles from our web site. Follow this link to review all our articles from October and check a few highlighted ones below.

As ever, for the sake of our grandchildren, we appeal to you to speak out to win the conversation with your friends, colleagues, candidates, and political representatives for political action to combat climate change.

Suzuki Video

David Suzuki, an honorary member of the 4RG Steering Committee, has published a short video that demonstrates the link between Greenhouse gas emissions, global warming, climate change, and extreme weather events.

We all know the basics, more CO2 in the atmosphere causes higher air temperature which holds more moisture that results in more severe rainstorms, but Dr. Suzuki's video brings it to life in only 2 minutes.

Line 9 Provincial Party Positions

This article summarizes the positions on the proposed Line 9 reversal of the Provincial candidates for Guelph riding as expressed at our recent Guelph Climate Change forum.

In spite of the environmental risks of using a 38 year old pipeline for carrying bitumen, a material it was not designed for, and even though it would bring little direct benefit to Ontario, Ontario seems to be on a path to approve the proposal, perhaps leaving demonstrations and civil disobedience as the only voice that anyone will pay attention to. Speak up here.
