

for Our Grandchildren

our legacy, their future

April Newsletter

Dear For Our Grandchildren Supporter,

Most of our efforts in April have been directed towards preparing for our Town Hall meeting on Sunday, May 6 at 1:30. The meeting format will be a series of speakers followed by group discussions in which we expect to propose specific actions that participants can take now to make a difference. The speakers who will present their perspectives at this meeting are:

- Alanna Mitchell, author of “Seasick” who will explain the impact of climate change
- Stephen Scharper, Professor, Department of the Environment, University of Toronto, who will comment on imperatives that should drive people to take action,
- Glenn McGillivray, Managing Director, Institute for Catastrophic Loss Reduction, who will outline risks to homeowners will be facing if nothing is done, and
- the Honourable Glenn Murray, Minister of Colleges and Universities, Province of Ontario, who will review the possible strategies open to voters who will to prod governments into action.

We hope that you can find the time to attend what promises to be an informative and lively meeting. If you plan to attend please visit the web site and register so that we can have a good idea of how many people to expect.
